

SAVE THE DATE: March 29th with Phil Moore on Rewirement

Phil Moore and Ram Dass connected deeply just days before Ram Dass was stroked. Phil now shares deep understandings about Ram Dass' last lucid teaching. Our morning message will center around the theme of how to 'Be Here Now' --a sharing of songs, stories, interactions and guiding wisdom for living in a world of deep not knowing as we encounter the moment by moment shifts of what is emerging.

Love, Serve, Remember, Surrender:

"Together we will make new neurological pathways and even have time to deepen them. Our intention being to leave that Sunday with new ways of being and seeing."
