

Guiding Prayer 2020

With a soft, inward gaze and a gentle breath, I recognize the light of Spirit that is my source and true nature. Focused on the light, I look with kindness upon fears and worries, for they urge me to harness my great power of faith. By faith, I dare to see what cannot be seen by human eyes, but exists as surely as the sun exists behind a cloud. I trust in universal goodness, so much so that I rest deeply in the peace of spiritual assurance. I remain faithful during times when my human brain cannot envision the magnificent possibilities of a healthful life, harmonious love, or boundless prosperity. Moving from fear to faith, I see my life through spiritual eyes. I trust my divine identity as the greatest reality, and I live in joyous expectation.

Note from Rev. Flossie

Hello dear ones,

Thank you for joining with us last night in prayers of healing for our beloved world. I thought that you would enjoy Jan Garrett and JD Martin's song, "I Dreamed of Rain" sung by a professional chorus in their Zoom room. It might be just a little different than Phil and I last night.

Thank you for sharing your light and your loving kindness.
